

Holsberg

---

From: <Hilary_North@>
To: < holsberg@>
Sent: Thursday, September 05, 2002 2:22 PM
Subject: Descriptions of each person

Hi Lisa,

Here are some brief descriptions of the people in the poem. The latest issue of Time magazine has a long article about George Strauch's daughter, Hilary. Don't read it unless you are prepared to cry. Are we still on for Monday? Please let me know when and where. Thanks.

Hilary

Lou was mischievous.
Mayra was sexy.
Suzanne Y was goofy.
Mark was conscientious.
George was a really good Dad.
Rich was optimistic.
Chris loved to go sailing.
Paul was shy.
Lisa was always trying to improve herself.
Donna R. liked to wear bright colors.
Yolanda loved Irish music and was an accomplished soprano.
Nick was a high roller.
Karen tried to help the homeless.
Millie was sweet.
Suzanne P. was trying hard to get ahead.
Donna G. took care of other people.
Mary Ellen was witty.
Paul was enthusiastic.
Dave held the door open for other people while they escaped.
Andrea was very quiet.
Anna was always perfectly dressed and coiffed.
Dave P. was cheerful.
Steve sang opera in his spare time.
Lorenzo loved to play chess.
Herman laughed a lot.
Norman baked his own wedding cake.
Barbara had a nice smile.
Steven was trying to make friends.